Boundaries are a good thing!

When we believe the best of people, we let go of each thing they do that is hurtful to us. And we choose to think things like, 'I don't believe they meant to hurt me.' 'Maybe they're having a bad day or don't feel well.' 'They probably don't even realize how they sound.'

Joyce Meyer

Brain: Hey you...what 'cha doing?

You: Oh, just getting ready to settle down and get some sleep.

Brain: How about we review your screwups and over-analyze what happened today.

You: No... I'm tired and need some sleep.

Brain: ...and here we goooooo! Let's think about that comment your boss made....and your kids' future....and Covid and....

I AM NOT WHAT I THINK I AM...
I AM NOT WHAT YOU THINK I AM...
BUT...
I AM WHAT I THINK YOU THINK I AM.
